TITLE:

Workers Compensation Services

RELEASE DATE:

January 29, 2010

BUSINESS INFORMATION:

Washington State Migrant Council (WSMC), incorporated in 1983, is a Federal and State funded non-profit organization providing early childhood education and other human services to farm workers and rural families throughout the State of Washington. WSMC is an at-will, non-union employer and employs between 400 and 1,200 people, primarily staffing Early Childhood Education centers with educational staff, depending on the agricultural cycle. WSMC is requesting information pertaining to services offered by qualifying firms.

PURPOSE:

WSMC is seeking information from qualifying firms regarding Workers Compensation services offered to companies of comparable size. WSMC is requesting information of all services offered in regards to Workers Compensation Claims and Investigations, which include, but are not limited to:

- Claims Management
- Fraud & Abuse
- Rate Reductions
- Coordination between WSMC and WA State Department of Labor and Industries
- Safety Consultations

Please be sure to provide a detailed description of ALL services offered by responding firms in regards to Workers Compensation Claims management. Include basic company/contact information and a detailed list of services provided in your response. It is the intent of WSMC to obtain information of services provided to solicit for proposals in a future Request for Proposal (RFP).
